

Old Tbilisi Through the Eyes of a Local

That once buzzed with merchants from Persia, Armenia, Russia, and beyond. Learn about the city's multiethnic and multireligious past, where churches, synagogues, and mosques stand side by side.

Discover the vibrant heart of Tbilisi on this guided walking tour through its charming Old Town — a captivating blend of medieval alleys, places of worship, ancient walls, and historic bathhouses. Visit historic squares, caravanserais, multireligious places of worship, and bazaars.

Highlights

Ancient churches, traditional wooden houses, and vibrant courtyards. Discover hidden gems and architectural treasures that showcase Tbilisi's unique East-meets-West character.

Freedom Square: Begin your journey in the city's symbolic center, where Georgia's independence story and Tbilisi's transformation through the centuries come to life.

Medieval Old Town: Wander through a maze of cobbled streets lined with...

Main Route

- Freedom Square
- Seilanov Brothers' Mansion
- David Sarajishvili Mansion Writers' House
- Lado Gudiashvili Park
- Tamada Monument

Main Route

- Meidan Square
- Abanotubani Sulfur Bathhouses
- Sioni Cathedral
- Historic Caravanserais and Courtyards
- Jean Chardin Street

Explore as a local

Abanotubani – The Sulfur Baths District: End your tour in the legendary bathhouse district, where Tbilisi was founded. Discover the story behind the city's name and why this area remains central to its identity.

ZURA

BALANCHIVADZE

Zura Balanchivadze is a professional tour guide based in Tbilisi with 10 years of experience.

Educated in journalism, he brings a strong narrative approach to his work, combining historical accuracy with clear and engaging storytelling.

He is deeply interested in history, the arts, and music, which shape the thematic depth of his tours.

Zura offers a wide range of routes in Tbilisi, as well as selected destinations across Georgia, tailored for cultural, historical, and urban exploration.

Georgian State
National Singing and Dancing Academic
Ensemble Erisioni

Go backstage with Georgia's legendary Ensembles and feel the essence of the Georgian spirit. Discover how each dance tells a story of grace, courage, and freedom —carrying the unique genetic memory of an ancient and proud nation. Duration: 30-45 minutes

BACKSTAGE